

***

Contributed by Administrator
Tuesday, 04 December 2007
Last Updated Friday, 30 January 2015

- 1) Leather Technology and Chemistry training to high school and university students (general and advanced levels)

- 2) Follow up of the process control in leather productions and quality control of finished leathers together with evaluation using chemical / physical methods. Including field service to tanneries ( pin â€“ point the problem and solve).

- 3) Productions methods and quality control of vegetable tannins and application on different types of leathers, together with evaluation of the final products.

- 4) The industrial production technologies (methods), quality evaluation, application of the proprietary chemicals used in leather industries.